Dr. John A. Leitch, "I have never seen a more efficacious, especially the evening breeze from the sea, which I am glad to hear that Mr. Leitch said since October last, and when I first met him he had been in the hospital for the whole year around save the last two months, August and September. The city is flat; not so many palaces as one's eyes would lead him to believe. The native quarters are thronged and peculiarly filthy. One is struck by the most of tanks partly filled, in most cases, in further corroboration of Mr. Leitch's case, a call was made upon Dr. L. M. Leitch, with death breeding filth, that the native balbe in. They are very fond of bathing.

THE LAST CALL MADE BY THE NEWSPAPER MAN.
The last call made by the newspaper man was upon Mr. C. Fleming, whose art studio is in the Lindell Hotel. Miss Fleming said: "I have been troubled with kidney disease since my childhood, and it finally culminated in chronic catarrh of the bladder. It would be responsible for me to die. I had been suffering, and I had abandoned all hope."
